1st IHF Live Online Symposium

Dear Handball Friends,

The IHF is proud to announce the 1st IHF Live Online Symposium for coaches and referees worldwide.

Presented by the IHF Virtual Academy, the new and innovative element for the worldwide education of important multipliers, coaches, referees, delegates and PE teachers, the 1st IHF Live Online Symposium will take place from 26 June to 25 July 2020, covering a total of 20 live seminars with presentations from top coaches and IHF top lecturers on various current topics. The full programme is available online here.

Handball enthusiasts from all around the world can take part in the seminars, which will primarily be held in English, with simultaneous translations offered in Spanish, French and Arabic. Users will be able to ask lecturers questions via a chat function.

In order to take part, you are required to register at the IHF Education Centre.

Attached to this letter is the programme of the 1st IHF Live Online Symposium. We encourage all of you to share the document through your online channels, for example by providing it as a download on your federation's website.

We look forward to a successful first symposium.

Yours sincerely,

INTERNATIONAL HANDBALL FEDERATION
